

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Commentaries on the Philosophy of Plato, and a considerable portion of such as are already published, 4to. 5 vols. half russia, 5l. 5s. (published at 10l. 10s. in boards.) 1804

"The translation of a considerable portion of the works of Plato, by Sydenham, has long been recognised as one of the most splendid instances of transfusing the beauty and sublimity of the writings of Plato into the English language, and has gained him immortal reputation. It has been the ambition of Mr. Taylor to emulate the brilliant success of his illustrious predecessor, and his version of the hitherto untranslated dialogues and epistles of Plato has been crowned with complete success. It has received the honourable testimony of the most eminent scholars, foreign and domestic; the approbation of Creuzer; of the eminently learned Dr. Routh, president of Magdalen College, Oxford, himself an editor of part of Plato, who has declared that Mr. Taylor unfolds the philosophy of Plato in a manner superior to any other expounder of it; and the equally honorable testimony of Dr. Copplestone, Bishop of Landaff." *R. MDCCI.

- A TWO YEARS' JOURNAL in New York : and part of its territories 1701.
in America. By C.W. A. M. . . . . London. ~~~~~
12mo. pp. 104.

A very curious and uncommon little book; the author appears to have been an English minister, who went to New York with Gov<sup>r</sup> Andros in 1678. It commences with the following "address to the reader:"—"The materials of this Journal have laid by me several years, expecting that some Landlooper or other in those parts would have done it more methodically; but neither hearing nor reading of any such as yet, and I being taken off from the proper studies and offices of my function, for my unprofitableness, I concluded that when I could not do what I ought, I ought to do what I could, which I shall further endeavour in a second part: in the meanwhile, adieu."

- A FULL ACCOUNT of the Proceedings in relation to Capt. Kidd.
In two letters. Written by a person of quality to a kinsman of the Earl of Bellomont in Ireland. . . . . London.
Small 4to. pp. 52.

Captain Kidd was employed by the Earl of Bellomont to go against the pirates which infested the coast of North America in 1696, but turned pirate himself. He was afterwards taken at Boston, sent to England, and hung with several others. There are many traditional stories of Kidd extant in New England, and a ballad, containing his last words and dying speech, commencing

"My name was Captain Kidd,
As I sail'd, &c."

was to be had of the pedlars in New England not many years ago.

Quarto, pp. 12.

Bib. Am. Prim. p. 182.

- 5 *SEVERAL CIRCULAR LETTERS to the Clergy of Maryland, subsequent to their late visitation, to enforce such resolutions as were taken therein. By Thomas Bray, D. D. London.

Juan de Villagutierre Sotomayor, &c. . . . Madrid.

With an engraved frontispiece of the arms of Spain, and at the end the Colophon on a separate leaf; both of which are frequently wanting. This work, the second part of which was never published, appears to have been unknown to Meusel.

MDCCII.

- 1 MAGNALIA CHRISTI AMERICANA: or, the ecclesiastical history of New-England, from its first planting in 1620, unto the year of our Lord 1698. In seven books.—I. Antiquities.—II. Lives of the Governors and names of the Magistrates of New-England.—III. The lives of sixty famous divines.—IV. An account of the University of Cambridge in New-England.—V. Acts and monuments of the faith and order in the Churches of New-England.—VI. A faithful record of many illustrious wonderful providences.—VII. The wars of the Lord, being an history of the manifold afflictions and disturbances of the churches in New-England. By the Reverend and Learned Cotton Mather, M.A. and pastor of the North Church in Boston, N.E. . . . . London.
Folio.

"One of the most singular books in this or any other language. Its puns and its poems, its sermons and its anagrams, render it unique in its kind." Quart. Rev.—"Liber quidem superstitionis plenus, utilis tamen illis, qui nasum habent." Meusel.—In the North American Review (vol. vi. p. 255,) there is an excellent analysis of this work. There are copies on LARGE PAPER, but they are rare. There is one in the choice library of Col. Aspinwall, who possesses, probably, the best private collection of books relating to America to be found any where.

- 2 AN ACCOUNT of the illegal Prosecution and Tryal of Coll. Nicholas Bayard, in the province of New York, for supposed high treason in the year 170½. Collected from several memorials taken by divers persons privately, the commissioners having strictly prohibited the taking of the tryal in open Court.

Quarto, plates.

A very scarce work relating to the establishment of the Swedes in New Sweden, afterwards Pennsylvania. It is to be regretted that it has never been translated into any language more generally understood than the Swedish. In some American catalogues its author is erroneously called Holm.

- 5 *ACTS AND LAWS of his Majesty's colony of Connecticut, in New England. . . . . Boston.
Folio.

In the British Museum.

MDCCIII.

- 1 NEW VOYAGES TO NORTH AMERICA. Containing an account of the several nations of that vast continent; their customs, commerce, and way of navigation upon the lakes and rivers; the several attempts of the English and French to dispossess one another; with the reasons of the miscarriage of the former; and the various adventures between the French and the Iroqueuse confederates of England, from 1683 to 1694. A geographical description of Canada, and a natural history of the country, with remarks upon their government, and the interest of the English and French in their commerce. Also a dialogue between the author and a general of the savages, giving a full view of the religion and strange opinions of those people; with an account of the author's retreat to Portugal and Denmark, and his remarks on those courts. To which is added, a Dictionary of the Algonkine language, which is generally spoken in North America. Illustrated with twenty-three maps and cuts. Written in French by the Baron Lahontan, Lord Lieutenant of the French colony at Placentia in Newfoundland, now in England. Done into English. In two volumes. A great part of which never printed in the original. . . . . London.

8vo. 2 vols.

Reprinted in 1735. First printed in French in this year. Lahontan was a freethinker, and consequently had but little respect for the clergy; it is not therefore to be wondered at that he was persecuted in France, and his work traduced. The character given of the author and of the work by the Jesuits has been adopted by later writers, who ought to have known better. A writer in the North American Review observes, that the Baron seems to have been an ardent and enterprising character, with more wit than discretion, but that his accounts bear every mark of authenticity, and are quite confirmed by cotemporary as well as subsequent writers on the same country. The English edition having been translated under the inspection of the author, is probably more correct than the French editions. It contains also several additions published for the first time; particularly the celebrated dialogue "between the author and Adario, a noted man among the savages." 1703. ~

- 2 *THE PRESENT STATE of affairs in Carolina. By John Ash, Gent. Sent by several of the inhabitants of that colony, to deliver their representations thereof to, and seek redress from the Lords Proprietors of that province.

Quarto.

Bib. Am. Prim. p. 186.

Shark's Bay. The isles and coast, &c. of New Holland. Their inhabitants, manners, customs, trade, &c. Their harbours, soil, beasts, birds, fish, &c. trees, plants, fruits, &c. Illustrated with several maps and draughts; also divers birds, fishes and plants, not found in this part of the world, curiously engraven on copper-plates. Vol. 3. The first volume was printed in 1697, the second in 1699.

The present state of the country, as to the polity of the government, and the improvements of the land. By a native and inhabitant of the place. . . . . London.

The frontispiece has "By R. B. gent." which is understood to stand for R. Beverley, and not Bird, as stated by Meusel. Reprinted in 1722. Translated into French in 1707.

- 2 JAMAICA VIEWED, &c. (First printed in 1661.) The third edition. By Captain Hickeringill. . . . London.
Small 4to. map.

This tract is printed with several others by the same author, a very eccentric writer, who, after having been an officer in the army, took orders and became a priest, "when he gave much offence to his brethren by his wild and often scurrilous attacks on the church, in a variety of pamphlets." Chalmers.

- 3 *PARTY TYRANNY, or an occasional bill in miniature; as now practised in Carolina. Humbly offered to the consideration of both houses of Parliament. . . . London. 1705. ~

Small 4to. pp. 30.

Attributed to the celebrated Daniel De Foe.

- 4 *A PLAIN AND FRIENDLY PERSUASIVE to the inhabitants of Virginia and Maryland for promoting towns and cohabitation. By a Wellwisher to both Governments. . . . London.

With the heads of several of our most considerable sea-commanders; and a great number of excellent maps of all parts of the world, and cuts of most curious things in all the voyages. Folio, 2 vols.

First edition, reprinted in 1744-8, with great alterations and additions. It appears to have been got up in competition with Churchill's Collection, but differs entirely from that work, being a history of all the known voyages and travels, whereas Churchill's is a collection of some particular relations and histories.

- 7 TRAITÉ DES FOUGERES de l'Amerique. Par le R. P. Charles Plumier, Minime de la province de France, et Botaniste du Roy dans les Isles de l'Amerique. . . . Paris.

1705. Folio. 172 plates.

Plumier's figures consist of little more than outlines, but being as large as nature, and well drawn by himself, produce a fine effect. Many hundred of his drawings remain still unpublished in the library of the Jardin des Plantes at Paris. Copies of many of these were obtained by the Earl of Bute, which afterwards passed into the hands of Sir Joseph Banks. Boerhaave had previously obtained copies of above 500, most of which were published by Burmann, in 1755-60. In 1824 the compiler of this work met with copies of about 500, very well executed, and a ms. volume of descriptions, which are now in the possession of A. B. Lambert, Esq. Vice President of the Linnean Society.

- 8 *THORMODI TORFÆI, historia Vinlandiæ antiquæ seu partis Americæ septentrionalis. . . . . Hafniæ.
Small 8vo.

A rare book (republished in 1715,) showing that the northern nations had a knowledge of the American continent prior to the discoveries of Columbus.

MDCCVI.

- 1 A JOURNAL OF TRAVELS from New Hampshire to Caratuck, on the continent of North America, by George Keith, A.M. late Missionary from the Society for the propagation of the gospel in foreign parts, and now rector of Edburton, in Sussex.

Quarto, pp. 96. London.

This work contains little more than an account of the sermons preached by the author at the different places through which he travelled. George Keith is the same person who some years before defended the Quakers against Increase and Cotton Mather, but afterwards turned against the Quakers himself, and became a Baptist.

- 2 AN ACCOUNT of the Society for propagating the Gospel in foreign parts, established by the royal charter of King William III. With their proceedings and success, and hopes of continual progress under the happy reign of Queen Anne.

Quarto, pp. 97. London.

- 3 HISTOIRE DE LA DECOUVERTE et de la conquête du Perou, traduite de l'Espagnol d'Augustin de Zarate par S. D. C.

12mo. 2 vols. Paris.

Zarate's history of the discovery and conquest of Peru was first printed in Spanish at Antwerp in 1555, in small octavo, afterwards in 1577 at Seville, in folio, and in Barcia's Historiadores in 1749. It was translated into English by T. Nicholas, and printed in 1581, in small quarto, black letter. "Zarate's history, whether we attend to its matter or composition, is a book of considerable merit, as he had opportunities to be well informed, and seems to have been inquisitive with respect to the manners and transactions of the Peruvians; great credit is due to his testimony." 1706.

Robertson.

MDCCVII.

- 1 A NEW DESCRIPTION of that fertile and pleasant province of Carolina: with a brief account of its discovery, settling, and the Government thereof to this time. With several remarkable passages of Divine Providence during my time. By John Archdale, late governour of the same. . . . London.
 Quarto, p. 40.

Gov. Archdale introduced the cultivation of rice into Carolina.

- 2 MEMORIAL of the present deplorable state of New England under Joseph Dudley, esq. . . . . Boston, N. E.
 Quarto.

A copy in the British Museum.

 Quarto, p. 30.

Contains the foregoing memorial, and the defence of Gov. Dudley.

- 4* THE HUMBLE SUBMISSION of several kings, princes, generals, &c. to the crown of England, lately presented to Sir Nath. Johnson, the present governor of Carolina under her Majesty Queen Ann. . . . . London.
 Folio.

In the British Museum.

- 5 A VOYAGE ROUND THE WORLD. Containing an account of Captain Dampier's expedition into the South Seas in the ship St. George, in the year 1703 and 1704. With his various adventures, engagements, &c. and a particular and exact description of several islands in the Atlantick Ocean, the Brazilian coast, the passage round Cape Horn, and the coasts of Chili, Peru, and Mexico. Together with the author's voyage from Amapalla, on the west coast of Mexico, to East India. His passing by three unknown islands, and through a new discovered streight near the coast of New Guinea. His arrival at Amboyna. With a large description of that and 1707. ~~~~~ other spice islands; as also of Batavia, the Cape of Good Hope, &c. their rivers, harbours, plants, animals, inhabitants, &c. With divers maps, draughts, figures, plants, and animals. By William Funnell, mate to Captain Dampier. . . London.

"Funnell arrived in England before Captain Dampier, and seized on the opportunity to compose a relation of the voyage, a task for which he was ill qualified, and which he performed with disadvantage to the public. Funnell's narrative was published in 1707 by Knapton the bookseller, who being the publisher of three volumes of the voyages of Dampier, drawn up from his own manuscript journals, should have distinguished the difference, and not have obtruded Funnell's narrative into the same collection; but he was tempted by the favourable reception of the former volumes. The public were thus punished with a fourth volume to Dampier's Voyages, which contains not a word of Dampier's writing, but much that he disapproved. Funnell's narrative must now be allowed to retain its rank as fourth volume of Dampier's Voyages, as no other authentic account of that voyage has appeared, or can be expected to appear. The volume, however, would be better naturalized if it were made to include the following work."

- 6 *CAPT. DAMPIER'S VINDICATION of his voyage in the ship St. George; with some small observations for the present on Mr. Funnell's chimerical relation. . . . London.

In this vindication, which does not occupy more than a single sheet, Dampier points out several misrepresentations made by Funnell, and accuses him of having pirated from charts and papers with which he had been intrusted, but of which, Dampier says, he afterwards rendered a very slender account, pretending that some of them were lost." Burney.

- 7 *AN ANSWER TO CAPT. DAMPIER'S Vindication of his voyage to the South Seas in the ship St. George; with particular observations on his ungenerous, false, and barbarous usage to his ship's crew. By John Welbe, midshipman on board Capt. Dampier's ship. . . . London.

Quarto, pp. 8.

- 8 A VOYAGE TO THE ISLANDS Madeira, Barbados, Nieves, S. Christophers and Jamaica, with the natural history of the herbs and trees, four-footed beasts, fishes, birds, insects, reptiles, &c. of the last of those islands; to which is prefixed an introduction, wherein is an account of the inhabitants, air, waters, diseases, trade, &c. of that place, with some relations concerning the neighbouring continent and islands of America. Illustrated with the figures of the things described, which have not been heretofore engraved, in large copper-plates 1707.

as big as the life. By Hans Sloane, M. D., &c. In two ~~~~~ volumes.—“Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.” Dan. xii. 4. . . . . London.
